

Local-to-Global Solutions

for Sustainable Development in Southern United States by University Students & Cities for CEDAW of North Carolina Experience

Friday, March 18, 2016
8:30 a.m.

Church Center for the U.N.
10th Floor UN Plaza
777 1st Ave. at 44th Street
New York, NY 10017

WomenNC 2016 CSW Fellows

Part I: Panel on Sustainable Development in Southern U.S.

- Maya Krishnan, NC State University, Improving the Pipeline to Political Leadership Positions for Minority Women
- Maddy Katz, Duke University, Non-citizen Women's Accessibility to Domestic Violence Protections
- Leah Ford, UNC-Chapel Hill, Creating Better Neighborhood Environments for Women and Children Living in Poverty
- Laura Douglass, Meredith College, Sexual Assault Prevention Education in Hyper-Masculine Cultures
- Olivia Horton, UNC-Chapel Hill, Telepsychiatry Solutions to Address Rural Women's Mental Health

Part II: NC Coalition for Cities for CEDAW Experience

- Cassie Holt, B.A. Public Policy, B.A. English, UNC-Chapel Hill

Moderators: Beth Dehghan & Carla Nunn

Sponsored by WomenNC, WHRIA, NC Coalition for CEDAW,
Women Intercultural Network, US Women Connect,
UNA-Wake, & Nation to Nation International

www.WomenNC.org